A woman with a fireplace poker enters a fun house and goes down a dark staircase to a sub-basement and then down an escalator, past empty rooms and a room where men and women seem to be eating raw chicken and finds a woman drawing a line of stick figures on a blackboard and cutting out paper dolls, and then cut them into pieces with long scissors; the second woman dances across school desk lines and fights and slaps the other woman, throws her to the ground and kicks her in the stomach, causing the victim to scream in pain; they fight and fight and stab each other with scissors and a poker in a corridor, among large rabbits, and in a single shot a woman is stabbed several times and hit a wall. A man and a woman are standing with scissors in their hands and blood stains on their faces. A woman hits another woman on the head with a vase and they fight, rolling on the floor; a woman lies down behind a counter and the other woman stabs and kills her (the counter hides the action), but we hear the blows. We welcome suggestions and criticism - and we will also accept compliments. We welcome suggestions and criticism - and we also accept compliments. "Two flashbacks show a young girl staring into space as her mother cries when a therapist tells her that her daughter is suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder after a horrific experience at an amusement park. While we read all the e-mails and try to answer them, we don't always succeed in doing so; be assured that we will not share your e-mail address. "A teenage girl drives an SUV for another teenage girl; she falls on the windshield and stabs through the broken glass with scissors (no people are stabbed) and is shot again and thrown into a tree, where she hangs upside down; a woman gets out of the vehicle holding a foot in the fireplace and meets the girl, who growls and gives her a blow, and then dies with her eyes open and mes mes ,etnednepedni etnemlatot etis mu somoS .otsor on to political, religious or other groups & we do not solicit or select advertisers. Be aware that while we do our best to avoid spoilers, it is impossible to gloss over every detail and some details may reveal crucial plot elements. A teenage girl arms herself with a golf club and a young boy grabs a large geode rock as they walk through blood streaks on the walls to find two teenage girls and hit them several times on the head with their guns, killing them (one girl falls over a balcony); the teenager with the golf club hits the other girl just beyond a door and we hear splattering like blood splattering on the walls. Read our parents' guide below for details on sexual content, violence and strong language. A man tells his wife that he will meet her in the magic room (it is the bedroom, implying sex); he is seen wearing a T-shirt and shorts, and lies facing the camera with his legs spread (we can see his bare legs up to mid-thigh and the outline of his genitals on his shorts), but there are no sexual images or contact. The MPAA rating was given for "violence/terror and language." With, including scenes of kissing and sex talk, cleavage revealing clothing and bathing suits, many scenes of people attacking and killing other people with blood and gore, many scenes of unusual and frightening behavior, and over 30 F-words. [Runtime: 2:00] [Running time: 2:00] A man and a woman kiss for a few seconds. Two men push a third man several times. Haunted by a childhood funhouse trauma near the house, she becomes increasingly paranoid and when masked strangers attack and the masks come off, the strangers resemble herself, her husband and her children..... but with unusual names and personalities..... A family four docks of a dock on a motor boat, while a woman and a snarling boy stay the dock. A man says that he is going outside for a smoke (we do not see him smoke). A man and a woman argue a few times. A few men are seen shirtless (their bare chests, abdomens and backs are seen) in a long shot on a beach. Three men shadow-box a wall. A man and a woman argue about watching their daughter more closely and the mother blames the father for the child's PTSD. A man wrapped up in a plastic tarp wakes up in a motor boat at night, he punches another man in the head knocking him into the water and the first man also falls into the water. A young boy wearing a mask that has fangs hides in a cupboard and bounces out at his teen sister, making her shout; she locks him in a closet where he screams and pounds the door until his mom lets him out. You can help us keep our independence with a donation. A car is shown in flames and a boy wearing a mask stands in front of it, snapping his fingers; he holds up a match and walks backward, ready to ignite spilled gasoline, but he catches fire, falls down, and is consumed in flames. A woman stabs a poker completely through another woman (we see some blood), who grunts, falls to a seated position, spits blood and whistles; the other woman strangles her with a chain, breaks her neck with a loud crunch, and screams toward the ceiling. We see a long line of men and women clones joining hands across a city and the nearby mountains. Two teen girls stand on a balcony and in a long-shot stab two other teen girls in the throat with shears (we see no blood as they collapse). A woman's V-neck top reveals moderate cleavage and another woman wears a halter top that reveals her bare back and cleavage. The back wall of a classroom is filled with large white rabbits in cages and we later see them hopping around a classroom and through hallways where men and women seem entranced and zombie-like, pretending to ride a roller coaster (they are shaking their bodies up and down). A doppelganger boy has a scarred lower face and scowls on all fours and snaps his fingers frequently, grunting and growling; It is implied that he burned down a house. A flashback shows the reflection of a girl in a mirror and her face has a wicked smile and fang-like teeth as she reaches and chokes the real girl and then drags her off the screen; The real girl is then seen wearing different clothes and handcuffed to a bunk bed, while the girl of reflection finishes wearing the real girl's clothes and leaves as the real girl grunts and struggles, but cannot free herself. - A teenage girl chases another teenage girl outside at night, gets on a car roof, and pulls out a long pair of scissors until a man yells at her and she jumps up, stabs him and he drops dead (no blood is shown) as the other girl runs away. A man in a boat screams as another man shoots him in the chest with a flare gun; The two men fight and the second man escapes. A man and a woman are shown after they have been stabbed and the man is dead in a pool of blood and the woman crawls through the blood toward the camera in panic.
